Statement of Principle

EC, the National Equestrian Federation of Canada, supports adherence to humane treatment of horses in all competitions under its jurisdiction.

EC is committed to:

- Upholding the welfare of horses, regardless of value, as a primary consideration in all activities;
- Requiring that horses be treated with kindness, respect, and the compassion that they deserve, and that they never be subjected to mistreatment;
- Ensuring that owners, trainers, exhibitors and their agents use responsible care in the handling, treatment and transportation of their horses as well as horses placed in their care for any purpose;
- Providing for the continuous well-being of horses by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort, sanitation and safety as a matter of standard operating procedure;
- Continuing to support scientific studies on equine health and welfare;
- Increasing education in training and horsemanship practices;
- Requiring owners, trainers, and exhibitors to know and follow their sanctioning organization's rules and to work within industry regulations in all equestrian competitions;
- Reviewing, revising and developing competition rules and regulations that protect the welfare of horses.

The standard by which conduct or treatment will be measured is that which a reasonable person, informed and experienced in generally accepted equine training and exhibition procedures, would determine to be cruel, abusive or inhumane.

The 2011 Alberta Junior/Young Riders (AJYR) Dressage Classic has been organized with the goal of supporting the Junior/Young Riders of Alberta. Proceeds from the show and any additional donations will go toward the international competition, education, growth, team travel, and promotion of the Junior/Young Riders. The funds are held in trust by the Treasurer and all funds are allocated according to the guidelines set by the AJYR Dressage Association. This is the major fundraiser for our Junior and Young Riders to assist them with competition expenses associated with travel to the North American Junior and Young Riders competition and Youth Nationals. This year, the NAJYRC competition will be held in Lexington, Kentucky.

All riders are welcome to participate in the AJYR Dressage Classic, whether they are Adult Amateurs, Juniors or Open riders. For those riders that are not quite ready to compete in the Gold Show, a one-day Bronze show is being offered on Saturday, May 7, 2011.

The executive of AJYR will be happy to answer any questions you have about their programs.
