

Lilo Fore

FEI “I” US Judge

A name synonymous with dressage in the US, Lilo Fore is an FEI “I” Judge and has been a member of the ground jury for numerous USET selection trials for the Pan American Games, the World Equestrian Games and The Olympics. She is also an FEI “C” Judge for Para-Equestrian and a USEF “R” judge for Sport Horse.

She is a founding member of the USDF Instructor Certification Program and is currently an examiner. She has chaired or been a member of numerous committees for the USDF and USEF as well as being a successful rider, trainer and coach. Many of the horses she trained won national and international competitions. She is the winner of numerous national and international Horse-of-the-Year awards for California, USDF and USET. She is continuously involved in many educational programs for Dressage trainers, teachers and judges throughout the U.S.

A breeder of sport horses, Ms. Fore stood up to six stallions at stud and earned numerous awards with her horses in breed shows in the USA and Canada from her own breeding program. She prepared her stallions for 100 day stallion testing and all passed and were licensed.

She owns and operates Sporthorse America; a dressage training facility started 1989 and located in Santa Rosa, CA.

Lilo grew up outside of Dusseldorf, Germany, where, at age four, she saw her first horse. Lilo says “...from that time on I knew that four legs, a mane and tail would be my life.”
